

Miyoko Preaching Point

God is great!!! June report of Miyako coming at you (: This month I would like to share a little story. As you all know I did seaweed work this year and I was able to meet a lot of new faces. Now, as time goes on, I keep running into more and more of these people at different times. So, the story goes I was invited to go spearfishing with one my friends Yuuki, so I accepted thinking we were going to be on my boss's boat. This day it turns out I was going to be hitching a ride with two other seaweed captains. We took a 30 min ride out to the fishing spot and I got all my gear ready to begin my hunt. My other friends jumped into the water to look at coral and fish about 3 min before I was ready. So, I was left on the boat with its captain and the captain of another boat, and they told me your can go now its fine. But I said no I'm not ready yet, they looked at me a little puzzled because I had everything I could possibly need situated. But I told them I'm not ready because I haven't prayed yet, and I told them before I get in the ocean, I ask Jesus to protect me and help me to do well. Then I said, ok I'm going to pray now, and when I prayed, I prayed in the name above every other name JESUS. When I finished I looked up and both of the guys mouths were wide open in amazement, then said that was amazing, wow, that was awesome. I waved and dropped into the water to catch a fish worth $130.00 (: o yes. And I got to tell them this is part of the reason I pray; Jesus knows were every fish is at and he can show me where to go. Them main thing though, these two men got to hear for the first time the name of Jesus in prayer and they felt the power behind it, a seed was sown in both of their hearts that day and I intend to see it bring forth a

Weekly Miyoko

Events

- Preaching on Sunday
- Awesome Wednesday Bible study and cell group.
- Teaching Discipleship class every Thursday to one of our Japanese families.
- Continuous outreach efforts to meet new people.

Our weekly cell groups have been a very useful tool in reaching the people of Miyoko, we have had the opportunity to visit locals at their homes and share our testimonies about Jesus!!!

harvest. God is so good, and he is moving, we just need to move with him to find those who are ready.

I'm also thankful to report Pastor Hosmer, Bro. Ward and Bro. Cole were able to spend some time with my wife and I here in Miyako, which consisted of prayer drives, in house focused prayer, and of course some Phase 10.... the wife lost (: It was also blast being able to feed my nighttime spearfishing buddy and his friend American bacon, BLT's for the first time, it was so awesome to see my wife sharing her testimony with the woman (kyoko) and building a friendship with her. The two of them stayed over until early morning, it was about 12:30 when they decided to leave. It was so good to finally get some of the Nishibe people to come into the church building and have wholesome hangout time. Haha, there wasn't a beer in sight, and I didn't have to take a shower afterwards to get all the cigarette smoke off of me, it was great.

Later in the month I got the opportunity to go to my boss's house again who's leg is swelled up twice the size of normal because of his gout, which is caused by drinking. I gave him a fish just to strike up a reason to be at his house so late 10:30 or so (I just left a get together with some other people)and started asking how long his leg had been bad. It ended up with my wife and I praying for his leg again, and this time his sister in law was there watching and she said "it's gana have to get better now that you prayed for it" I felt the Holy Spirit so strong in that moment, and when we left I could see my boss in deep thought... cant tell you what he was thinking but I'm sure it had something to do with his strange foreigner friend who always prays for him.

Guys, readers, people of God, Jesus loves these wonderful people in Miyako, and I know soon their eyes will be open to the truth. So, thank you so much for your continued prayers and support it's a huge help, and thank you for investing into the Kingdom through the ministry here in Miyako, I love and appreciate you all. God bless

God Bless
