EXPERIENCE

The Netherlands

As an AIMer

I wrote this newsletter a bit later than I intended to, but better late than never! Here are some highlights, events, and responsibilities I've experienced as an AIMER in Holland in the months of April and May of 2025.

Easter Sunday

Easter Sunday at Het Keerpunt was truly a remarkable experience, marked by an extraordinary turnout of guests that filled the church nearly to capacity. I was initially scheduled to assist with Sunday school that morning, preparing to spend my time with the children. However, I was fortunate to witness the congregation during the altar call — what an amazing move of God!

We had a small Easter egg hunt for the children and an amazing Easter lesson in each class for the kids to learn about the resurrection of Christ.

Later that afternoon, Ekklesia Church in Rotterdam had the most attendees they've had to date!

The unity and growth in both congregations made this Easter not only a celebration of Christ's victory over the grave but also a testament to the living and growing body of believers in the Netherlands.

Responsibilities

Since I've arrived in Holland, I have been involved with activities in and outside of the church. Continuing with social media posts, helping clean the church, and Bible studies.

YACHAD

YACHAD, which means "as one," is an annual national youth conference that takes place in a different city each year across The Netherlands. This year marked a special milestone, as Het Keerpunt had the honor of hosting the two-day event in Dordrecht for the very first time since YACHAD began three years ago.

Approximately 170 young people gathered from across Holland, Belgium, and Norway, united in their passion for worship and spiritual growth. Our guest speaker, Gøran Andreassen from Oslo, Norway, powerfully ministered throughout the weekend, delivering impactful messages that stirred hearts and transformed lives.

The presence of God was undeniably felt as He moved in remarkable and unforgettable ways. I was truly blessed to be part of the praise and worship team on Friday night, the opening night of YACHAD—it was both a humbling and exhilarating experience to lead others in worship during such a powerful event.

Preparing for Pentecost Weekend

Pentecost weekend is fast approaching! This upcoming week, the church will be fasting and praying for our June 7th & 8th Pentecost weekend services. Bro. Josh Resar will be speaking! We are looking forward to the huge outpouring of the Holy Ghost at all 6 churches in the Netherlands! God has done so much AND HE'S NOT FINISHED YET!
