Estonia News

Welcome back to our Reaching Estonia newsletter! We are thrilled to share with you the latest updates in our mission to spread the Gospel across Estonia.

This past month we spent half our time in Tartu and the other half in Tallinn to help with the work there as Bro. & Sis. Turner were preparing to move their oldest son into Indiana Bible College. Congratulations to them on this new chapter in life.

Sunday evening through Wednesday morning we spent our time in Tartu continuing to have our Sunday church services, midweek Bible studies, and prayer walks to break through the spiritual bondages of this city.

Wednesday afternoon through Sunday afternoon was spent in Tallinn. We were able to continue our weekly Thursday evening prayer, Sunday services, and connecting with new contacts..

In both cities, we saw meaningful time of connection, worship, and ministry in a different settings.

Jesse continues to impress the Estonians with speaking their language. We have continued to be successful with Jesse preaching in Estonian every other week in Tartu and Abigail was a worship singer in the Tallinn church and sang in Estonian for the first time.

We are excited about the progress we have seen with people connecting with us. If you have ever been to Estonia or met an Estonian, you would know that they keep to themselves. God truly has been working through us and breaking through that barrier.

Please continue to pray and fast with us as we share the goodness of Jesus.

Enjoy this month's newsletter!

Estonia's Song Festival

Estonia's Song Festival (laulupidu) is a special time in the culture for Estonians to gather and unite for over 150 years. Once originated in Tartu, it now takes place every 5 years to commemorate their history and their independence from other nations in Tallinn.

There was a choir of 32,022 singers and Bro. and Sis. Turner was apart of this group. Also, there were 58,000 spectators. What a crowd!

Appreciation

We want to extend our deepest gratitude to everyone who has supported us along the way. Your encouragement, belief, and generosity means the world to us.

Whether through your words, finance, or actions, you've made a real difference—and we cannot do this without you.

Let us, the whole church, continue to work together to share the whole gospel to the whole world.
