NOTES FROM THE FIELD

JUNE 2025

WELCOME TO OUR

June Newsletter

Things here in Barcelona seem to be picking up quickly. This month, classes at the RKR Training Center officially kicked off! It has been a great time of learning, fellowship, and spiritual impartation. The sessions have been eye-opening, and we are incredibly grateful to be here in Barcelona with the Ueckers and all the other AIMers. Our Regional Directors, Bro. and Sis. Harrod, joined us for a session where they shared their missionary journey, burden for the European region, and some great practical advice. We also had the Director of Short-term Missions, Bro. Poitras, join us for a session where he provided some great principles for those in missions.

We were also blessed to have Garrett's parents visit this month, and they helped watch the boys while we were in training. It was fun showing them around Barcelona outside of our training sessions and the boys enjoyed the quality time with their memaw and pops.

Thank you for your continued support and prayer! Without you, none of this would be possible.

In one of our sessions at the RKR Center, we discussed “Who is Your Neighbor?”. Afterwards, we had a powerful moment of prayer as we prayed for unreached people groups across the globe.

This month, we picked up our residency cards. This is a tremendous milestone for us, as these cards are required for many things here in Spain. One of those was that we needed to have these cards to stay for the duration of our Visa.

Prayer Points:

Pray for the people we have made contact with so far. One in particular, our neighbor, is showing great interest in a Bible study and attending church with us. Pray this happens in the coming days!

GW's Sunday School class held a special service for Pentecost Sunday with the theme of Pentecostés Otra Vez, or Pentecost Again! They had a time of worship, a lesson, and a time of prayer where one of the children received the Holy Spirit. GW has enjoyed attending Sunday School here in Barcelona, and we are grateful for all he is learning!

It has not taken long for Los Pentecostales de Barcelona (LPBCN) to feel like home. Each week, both Emily and I genuinely look forward to gathering with the saints for worship and fellowship. We're so thankful for the new friendships forming in our local church and are excited about the chance to become more involved as we continue serving here.

During our main service on Pentecost Sunday, we had one young man baptised in the only saving name of Jesus! Praise God!
