

JUNE '25 AIM NEWSLETTER

— On Field Update —

THIS MONTH WAS ABSOLUTELY AMAZING - LET ME TELL YOU ALL ABOUT IT! This month started off strong on June 1st with the first church service at the new building. The daughter works in Forssa and Vaasa traveled to join, and we had an incredibly powerful service followed by wonderful fellowship. A few days later, the Alphins and I headed to Estonia for a missionary training and fellowship meeting (AMTF). Being able to meet and learn from these amazing missionaries is an opportunity that I will always be thankful for. Back in Finland, the month has been filled with new learning experiences, moments where I have had to step out of my comfort zone, many prayer walks, and so much fellowship.

— Learning, Learning, and some More Learning —

While here, I have been able to enjoy adding new skills to my ever-growing toolbox. Last month, it was hanging drywall and ripping up carpet, but this month was a bit more in my element: writing a blog post and editing a manuscript. I have also had the opportunity to share a devotion with the congregation in Helsinki for their Core support, preach a mini-sermon during a Sunday service, and open and close another service.

All of the teaching that I have received here has not just come from opportunities that have made me grow, but also from watching the leadership in Finland just living their everyday lives. With every action, they operate in the overflow of the Spirit and are constantly teaching me something new, moving me beyond the classroom setting that I am used to and into a place where I am learning and growing from watching them.

— Fellowship 101 —

While on the field, I have learned that fellowship is deeply important, and it is at the heart of everything that is done here. I am beyond grateful for the friendships that I have made, and for all of the conversation, prayer, and encouragement that has come from them.

Ministry over lunch: sharing both past testimonies and future steps with these ladies!

I have been blown away by the kindness and welcoming spirits of these wonderful ladies. They reflect Christ's love and I am so thankful for these new life long friends.

Praying for laborers during the first service at the new church building.

Learning to step out of comfort zones with Sis. Jenny.

Made some new besties in Tallinn, Estonia at AMTF!!

Celebrating with the first receiver of the Holy Ghost in the new church building!

I had such a wonderful time in Tallinn earlier this month with everyone here. It was such a blessing to meet and learn from these anointed missionaries. So thankful for our time together.
