JULY

DEPARTURES

Time never seems to slow down. In the blink of an eye, it's already time for Kathleen and the rest of the RKR summer team to head back to the States. What a blessing they've been to Spain! I'm so grateful for all that the Lord has done through them during their time here. While I'm saddened to see them go, I'm excited and hopeful for what God has in store for each of them moving forward.

LIFE GROUPS

Monday night's life group continues to welcome both new visitors and familiar faces. I am so grateful for what the Lord is doing. The lady who is our host has such a passion and hunger for the Lord. This past Monday, she invited us all to join her to share the gospel on the metro.

RKR

We continued to our weekly RKR training sessions. During this time we have been able to share testimonies and witnessing all that God is doing through this group. He has used them in incredible ways during their time here, and they've truly been a blessing. It's hard to believe that summer has already come to an end. However, I can't put into words how excited I am to see where God leads everyone that came this summer next!

BAPTISMS

Thank you Jesus to all the souls that are being added to the church globally and locally. I am so grateful for another student we connected with that made the decision to be baptized in the name of Jesus. I am so excited for what the Lord has in store for this young lady!

BIBLE STUDIES AND IPC

I've never known a season where my pastor didn't have at least one Bible study going, and I'm praying I can say the same about myself. I'm so grateful for the way simple connections can grow into meaningful Bible studies. This young lady, for example, was someone another AImer connected with on a flight, and now here we are.

MEDITERRANEAN

God is moving powerfully here in Barcelona, but His work is also flourishing across the Mediterranean! I'm so grateful for the student who was baptized in Malta this month and for the continued outreach happening there. I'm incredibly proud of the youth in Italy who have caught the vision for student ministry and are faithfully doing prayer walks and evangelism on their campuses! Next month, I'll be joining the students in Greece, please be praying, as I believe God has great things in store!

Thank you for your continued giving, prayers and support!
