NOTES FROM THE FIELD

JULY 2025

WELCOME TO OUR July Newsletter

Hola de la familia Nance!

July has been busy, but in the best way possible. This month, we both began our language school studies, and as of the time of this newsletter, we have successfully completed one month of studies. We are both gaining more confidence in using our Spanish, and it is allowing us to connect with the people here on a deeper level.

This month also marks the end of our summer sessions here at the RKR Training Center. I can not adequately express the impact that these sessions have had on our lives. Each session has brought fresh revelation, deeper understanding, and drawn us closer to the Lord. We are grateful for the ministry of the Ueckers and each speaker who poured into us.

Garrett was given the opportunity to speak at Los Pentecostales de Granollers. The Spirit ministered mightily to the congregation, and the Lord was magnified! Garrett was also blessed with the opportunity to teach a Bible Study to The Pentecostals of Andorra this month.

During our last training session, we heard a stirring word from Bro. MacLeod about the "Pattern for Potential." Afterward, we spent time together, fellowshiping as a group one last time.

Bro. Howell, our former Director of Global Missions, joined us for a session where he taught on "Keeping The Dream Alive." What a powerful and timely word that will continue to minister to us throughout our journey in missions.

Prayer Points:

Pray for GW's schooling. We find out this month which school he will be attending, and we want what is best for him and our family.

GW had a blast this month at VBS! The theme this year was “Buceando Hacia La Eternidad” or “Diving Into Eternity.” We rejoice with 3 children who received the gift of the Holy Spirit, and one parent who also received the Holy Spirit while attending with their child!

The Small Groups Team hosted several friends' day services this month across two weekends. We joined with the group in Nou Barris and enjoyed a wonderful time of fellowship and encouragement in the Word. Across the 16 zones, we saw 105 new friends attend for the first time. There were five baptisms in the name of Jesus, two individuals received the gift of the Holy Spirit, and three notable healings took place. God is moving in Barcelona!
