NOTES FROM THE FIELD

AUGUST 2025

WELCOME TO OUR

August Newsletter

Greetings from Barcelona!

August is a slower month in Barcelona, as most people are still on vacation or are just starting to make their return slowly.

While it may have been slow in the city, we had several small wins as a family in August. Both of us have completed two months of language study, and Garrett has tested out of his current class, advancing to the next level.

We also received notification that GW was accepted into our first-choice school, and classes begin on the 8th of September. This is an answered prayer!

We also celebrated Garrett's birthday and welcomed Emily's parents to Barcelona as they visited for a while.

This month was the Festa Major de Gràcia, which is a large festival held in the neighborhood of Gràcia. We were able to enjoy some family time and watch the Castellers de la Vila de Gràcia build a “castell”. This is a tradition specific to Catalonia and was quite the experience.

This month at Los Pentecostales de Barcelona (LPBCN), we had a “Semana Juvenil” or “Youth Week.” It was a powerful time of prayer, worship, and fellowship. For the midweek service during youth week, the youth led a service in Catalan, and we heard a stirring word, “Encara Hi Ha Un Lloc Per Mi?”, which translates to, “Is There Still a Place For Me?”. It is encouraging to see what the Lord is doing among the youth in LPBCN!
