

Three months have come and gone, and my time in Greece has ended. September was full of last-minute site-seeing, prepping for guests speakers, transitioning tasks to others, taking a 2-day trip to Crete, and continuing to do whatever I can for the POA. As you can see from the pictures over the last 3 newsletters, I have stayed busy, but it has been a privilege to serve. It is all about the mission – making HIM known.
