A Season of Growing Deeper

God is continually doing amazing things at UPC–Rwanda! This month, we have seen many filled with the Holy Spirit with the initial evidence of speaking in tongues. I'm grateful to witness a faithful God pouring out His Spirit on "those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied" (Matthew 5:6 NKJV). Many have come hungry and thirsty and have left satisfied with His presence in their lives.

November has been filled with so many opportunities to grow, serve, and witness God at work! I had the joy of partnering with fellow AMPer Venita in her Conversational English class, where we explored different tastes and flavors. I brought in a variety of fruits and foods that helped make the lesson engaging and interactive for the students. On Sundays, I have been privileged to teach in the Adult Sunday School sessions on the theme Connecting with Christ. Together, we've reflected on the importance of prayer, worship, and reading and meditating on His Word. These moments have been deeply grounding and life-giving.

I was surrounded by so much love on my birthday! I am so blessed by the families that have come together and welcomed me into their homes and into their hearts.

My cup overflows!
