NARVA, ESTONIA BORDER WITH RUSSIA

November — where every day is un-be-leaf-able.

Hello to all our faithful readers and welcome to the new ones if this is your first time reading our Reaching Estonia Newsletter.

It was an action-packed month, bursting with fresh opportunities while maintaining the momentum of the familiar.

Jesse and I are excited to share that we have launched a youth group in Tartu! There were 7 young people in attendance. We are thrilled about what God is going to do with this ministry.

In Tallinn, we were blessed to be in 4 out of the 5 services this month. For all our supporters who begin celebrating Christmas on November 1st, you will be excited to know that we had our Tallinn Church Christmas Banquet on November 29th. Hearts were merry and Christmas cheer was spread all around as we begin to celebrate the birth of our Savior.

While we were in Tallinn, we had the opportunity to lead two youth group services. It was a meaningful time, reminding the students that they are valued by God and that He has given each of them a unique purpose.

As many of you know there are activities, we have stayed steadfast in our endeavors in making Christ known and learning to communicate with the Estonians better. Here are the latest reports for those activities:

- Our Midweek Bible Studies have persisted as we discuss the Book of Acts.
- Jesse and I are in our final Estonian classes for the semester.

Thank you for reading our major highlights for this month! Please take a look at the next page and get a glimpse of our life in pictures and how you can be involved with this work.
