God's Hand of Protection

On Saturday, December 13, Venita and I were traveling by taxi to our weekly Bible study at Caritas' home in Kimironko. While we were on the way, a child suddenly ran into the street directly in front of our taxi. The driver swerved to avoid the child, but the vehicle went off the road, down two embankments, and into a construction zone. By God's grace, Venita and I walked away with only bruises and minor scrapes. We praise God for protecting the child and for guiding our vehicle safely between several large concrete sewer blocks laying along the roadside into the perfect spot! We give thanks and praise to the Lord! Everyone was safe!

Sunday School Teacher Training Classes

On Tuesday evenings, I've begun Sunday School Teacher Training classes with Joshua, Queen, Bonheur, and Witness, and I am so proud of these four young people. They have a sincere desire to grow deeper in Christ and to teach the younger generation about Him. We've been discussing the importance of Christian education, how the Bible is our foundation, and how our lives must be rooted in Christ so that we can bear fruit in our Sunday School ministry. Their passion for our Sunday School children is evident and they serve with excellence!

Please pray for them in this new year and this new adventure as they are stepping out in faith!
