WITNESSING TO FRIENDS & CLASSMATES

Johannes has been actively looking for opportunities with his friends at college to share God's Word. In conversations with classmates, he's been able to talk with them about God and testify about how He has worked in Johannes' life.

Candace has been developing a friendship with a coworker named Kimberly. Their sons play together often. Recently, she came with her family to a church function in Espoo, and she loved the sense of community that she felt. She said, "I think I could find myself here." Candace was able to sit with her and explain how much God means to her, and she is continuing to share as she works alongside Kimberly.

Please join us in prayer for Johannes' classmates at Arkada and for Kimberly!
