MONTHLY ADVENTURES

Greetings from Chisinau! One month has passed since I left American soil, one wonderful month of snow and smiles and far more ways to cook pelmeni than I ever realized existed. The Lord is good.

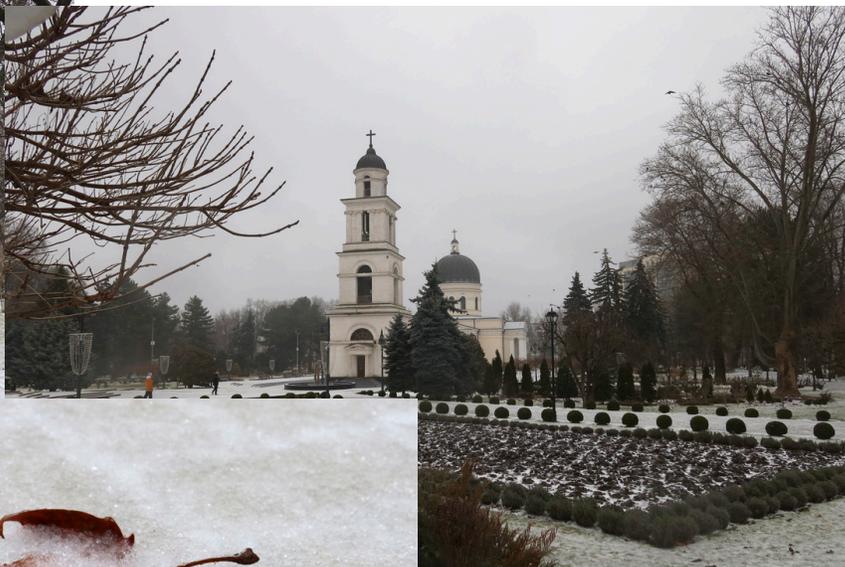

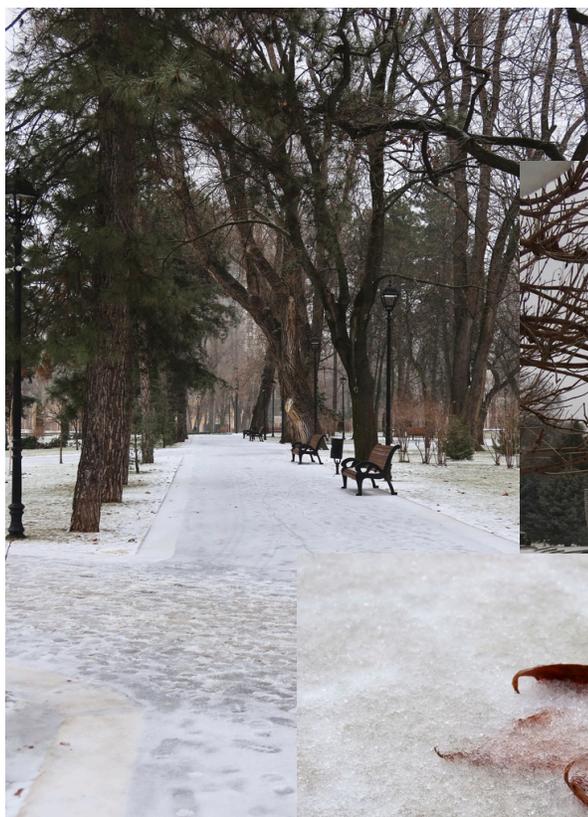

There have been many adventures this last month; learning to navigate public transportation, the snowy sidewalks, the language barrier at the grocery store, making hot chocolate on a gas burner, and many more. But God is the same Prince of Peace the world over.

Much of our time here is spent working with the McBride's two amazing MK, Silas and Adelina. Whether it's a couple hours playing with cars or watching their faces light up over a Sunday school story, every day spent with these two is a joy.

God is moving here in Moldova. I'm grateful to be a part of His master plan of harvest.

Until He comes!

MOLDOVA IS BEAUTIFUL.

Upon landing in Chisinau, we were greeted by a beautiful cloud of snowflakes. Since then it has snowed nearly every week.

These pictures were taken during a walk to and around the Cathedral Park in central Chisinau. A layer of mixed ice and snow had coated the ground in a sparkling white blanket.
