THE GOSPEL ADVANCES: DEAF MINISTRY SEES GROWING IMPACT IN BOHOL AND CEBU

We are thankful to see Deaf Ministry continuing to grow in Bohol and Cebu this month. Altogether, 15 people were baptized—7 Deaf and 8 hearing—and two Deaf individuals received the Holy Ghost.

Revival Spreads Across Bohol and Cebu

On Easter Sunday at Mt. Zion UPC, one Deaf person and two hearing individuals were baptized. The following week in Bohol, one Deaf person and two hearing individuals were also baptized. That same Sunday in Mandaue, seven people were baptized—four hearing and three Deaf—while in Cebu, two Deaf individuals received the Holy Ghost, and one was baptized. On the third Sunday, another Deaf person was baptized in Cebu.

During the third week of April, we traveled by Ocean Jet to Bohol for the Eastern Visayas Evangelism Conference. Nine Deaf individuals attended, and one Deaf woman received the Holy Ghost.

*We ended the month with a visit from our long-time friend Caleb and his friend Valerie.
It was a joy to spend a few days with them.*
