Here is a glimpse of what God has been doing in Poland.

Praise the Lord, friends and family,

As I sit down to write this update, I find myself struggling to put into words all that God has been doing during my time in Poland. What I can say with certainty is that He has been faithful. Every day, He continues to remind me that He is still calling people, still opening hearts, and still drawing souls to Himself. This is a nation filled with people whom God loves, people He is pursuing, and people He desires to reveal Himself to.

One of the greatest blessings of this journey has been serving through Thursday night English Club. What appears to be a simple gathering has become a powerful opportunity to build relationships with people from many different nations and backgrounds. Time and time again, I have been reminded that God often opens spiritual doors through genuine relationships.

I have also had the privilege of leading worship at Nowa Nadzieja (New Hope Church). Standing alongside believers from many different nations and lifting up the name of Jesus together has been one of the highlights of my time here. There is something beautiful about hearing voices from different cultures unite in worship to the same God. In those moments, I am reminded that the Kingdom of God is reaching far beyond borders and languages, and that He is building His Church around the world.

One of the most meaningful experiences of this season has been participating in Bible studies. This week, I had the opportunity to sit with a member of the church and witness God reveal truth through His Word. Watching him receive the revelation of the Mighty God in Christ was a powerful moment that I will never forget. There is no greater joy than seeing someone's eyes opened by the Spirit of God and moments like that remind me why missions matters.

I was also blessed with the opportunity to travel to Kraków with the Pattersons. While there, we visited several historic sites and spent time praying in a Catholic church. As we prayed, I felt a renewed burden for the people of Poland. Surrounded by centuries of religious history, I was reminded that what this nation needs most is not another tradition or ceremony, but a fresh revelation of Jesus Christ.

Lastly, I have spent time learning the polish language!

More than anything, this season has shown me that God is moving through moments that may seem small to us but are significant in His hands. And every day I become more convinced that God has not forgotten Poland.

Thank you for your prayers, encouragement, and support. Because of your investment, I have the privilege of being here, building relationships, sharing truth, and witnessing what God is doing among Europe. I am incredibly grateful to be a small part of His work, and I am excited to see what He continues to do in the days ahead.

Prayer Requests

- Open doors for more Bible studies and discipleship opportunities.
- Spiritual hunger and revival throughout Poland and Europe.
- Wisdom and sensitivity to the leading of the Holy Ghost.
- Lasting fruit from the relationships and ministry opportunities God has provided.

Thank you for standing with me as we reach the nations together.

"Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest."

— John 4:35 (KJV)

God Bless,
