

THE NETHERLANDS

APRIL-JUNE

Before I share what God has been doing here in the Netherlands, I want to apologize for the delay in sending out this newsletter. At the beginning of May, I experienced some unexpected health issues that required me to return to the United States for emergency gallbladder removal surgery. I spent about five weeks there recovering before I was able to return to the Netherlands.

I'm thankful to say that I'm doing much better now. Thank you to everyone who prayed for me, sent encouraging messages, and supported me during that time. Your prayers and kindness meant more than you know!

Even though my plans changed for a season, God's plans didn't. His Kingdom continues to move forward here in the Netherlands, and I'm so grateful to be back and able to be a part of what He's doing. I'm excited to share a few of the ways we've seen Him at work over the past couple of months.

Ministry Highlights

April

In April was a busy and rewarding month. I spent nearly two weeks painting all of the air conditioning pipes in our church building. I also had the opportunity to host City Groups, preach on Easter Sunday, and celebrate with those at Freedom Church who completed the Exploring God's Word and Next Steps classes as they received their certificates. To close out the month, our Freedom Church family participated in a four-day prayer walk throughout the city of The Hague, praying for our community and believing God for what He is continuing to do here.

May

In May, I unexpectedly returned to the United States for surgery and recovery. Even while I was home, God opened doors for ministry. I had the privilege of ministering at my home church, teaching Bible studies, and seeing a handful of people receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. It was a wonderful reminder that God provides opportunities to serve wherever we are.

June

I returned to the Netherlands in the middle of June and was grateful to jump back into ministry. Since returning, I've been able to teach Bible studies and preach at our mother church, Het Keerpunt. Right now, I'm settling back into the rhythm of ministry and life here in The Netherlands, and I'm looking forward with expectation to all that God has in store over the next few months.
