FAMILY UPDATE THE SWORDS

Our daughters are now preparing for their final year of testing in Finnish High School. They are using the summer to jump-start their studying. The testing will be challenging, requiring 6-8 hours per subject test.

Amy has sustained an injury to her foot (stress fracture), that is requiring her to remain on sustained leave from work. God has His hand on this process, and she is in consultation for treatment.

1-MIN FOCUS.

June was a powerful, Spirit-filled month, and God strengthened all who attended the EMPOWER conference. We continue to push forward because the Kingdom of God must gain ground every day!

LADIES EVENT: BOUQUETS

fun fact:

Finnish families typically buy candy only once per week (karkkipäivä). This day—Saturday—was started in the 1950's by dentists to try to curb dental expenses for children. There is even a large Nordic candy maker that has named one of its candy mix bags "lauantai," which means "Saturday" in Finnish.

SOMEONE TO RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT

During the Empower Conference, the congregation witnessed the Spirit of God poured out in a new-birth experience. This was a moment of great rejoicing. The New Birth is truly the most wonderful miracle that can happen in a person's life!

The ladies of the congregation held a special event, where they strengthened their friendships while enjoying time to share their creative decorating skills.

We are watching the love of Christ continue to draw everyone together. He is training His people for His Kingdom work. It is inspiring to be able to participate with Him as He grows, challenges, and gives abundant grace to His Body!

Thank you for your continued support!
