A Season of Growth

If I had to describe this month in one word, it would be growth. God has been teaching me so much. Not only about ministry, but also about trusting Him, serving others, and relying on His direction day by day.

Some lessons have come through exciting opportunities, while others have come through unexpected situation. No matter how they arrived, each one has remained me that God uses every experience for our good and for His purpose. I am thankful for the ways He continues to shape me and teach me as I serve here in Brazil.

Starting with an Adventure

My second day in Brazil started with plans to visit the mall before taking a group from Florida to the airport. However, our plans quickly changed when one of the van's tires blew out on the highway. While it wasn't the adventure any of us expected, I am thankful that everyone remained safe. As we stood on the side of the road waiting for help, I was reminded that God is faithful even when our plans don't go as expected. What could have been a stressful situation became a reminder of God's protection and provision. Needless to say, my second day in Brazil was one I won't forget anytime soon!

Gathering Together

June 2026

This month we attended home church gatherings. These services have been some of my favorite moments so far because they are so personal and welcoming. It's been encouraging to see families open their homes, worship together, and grow in their faith. Even though I am still learning the language and culture, God's presence speaks louder than words.

Seeing people come together to pray, worship, and encourage one another has been a blessing and a reminder that God's Church is alive and growing.

SERVING AND GROWING TOGETHER

One of the greatest blessings of this journey has been serving alongside my fellow AIMers. Having others to encourage, learn from, and share experiences with has made this season of ministry even more meaningful. I'm thankful for the friendships being built and the opportunity to serve together for the Kingdom of God.

One of the highlights of this month has been spending time with the youth. Seeing their love for God, their dedication to learning Scriptures, and their involvement in Bible quizzing has been encouraging. I am thankful for the opportunity to spend time with them and watch them continue to grow in their walk with God.
