June 2026

June was my birthday month (29); I turned (grew into...Lol...) 74 years old. I'm a big girl now! I am so grateful for the prevailing providence of our Lord God over me! I refuse to live in regret...amen! I am content in the state that I find myself in, by the grace of God.

Okay, enough about me. As it becomes hotter here in Fukuoka, I must carefully navigate my outdoor activities—doctor's order to avoid extreme temperatures. On Saturday, June 6th, I was able to PrayerWalk the area where the Civic Center (where we now are holding our services) is located. After service on June 7th, I PrayerWalked the local /community park. The Lord will give the increase and receive the glory!

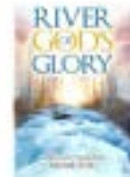

Our Prayer Gathering service, held on Wednesday, June 3rd, focused on "Praying for the Lost", using the WNOP, How To Pray for the Lost guide. The mini-lesson I presented was based on two questions: what should the church be praying for in the times we are living in; and, how should the church be praying in the times we are living in? I pray that all who attended via our Zoom room were blessed.

The message I delivered on Sunday, June 14th was entitled, "And He Only Had One Question!", Mark 16:16a (Acts 16:16-34). I believe we must minister to those who are seeking the explicit word of God as recorded in scripture. After all that the jailer experienced as he cared for Paul and Silas (and the other prisoners), he had this question: Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And, as we know, the jailer and his household received salvation! Amen!

I am a believer in the importance of showing oneself friendly, especially when it comes to witnessing/evangelism. As I always have a hopeful expectation that someone we've connected with and witnessed to will eventually visit our services, I likewise, if invited, will reciprocate as long as it is an acceptable setting/ religion. We were able to visit the person we befriended when we first moved to Japan in 2024 at her church service on June 21st, as she had already visited our service on Sunday, June 7th. She is interested in further contact. Amen!

I have begun to read Bro. Muthu's book given to me last month. It has already stirred my spirit as I get to know more about the glory of God. Amen!

The garden on the side of our home bloomed with beautiful roses and lilies this month. I dedicated it to my great aunt, Ruth Nelson, who instilled in me early in my life a love for gardening. It is now known as "Ruthie's Garden".

And, yes, it's soccer season for Levi. He has, as well, a growing anticipation for his Sunday School lessons with Nana. Praise God!
