

Month at a glance:

What a life I get to live. Highlights from the last few weeks:

- Hosting our Back to School service
- Music and Media involvement
- Teaching in Bible studies
- Getting the last of the to-do list done before flying to the States

As of mid-September, I am in the States. Being a traveler comes with following a plethora of visa/immigration restrictions. While ministry doesn't stop, placements have to change every so often. Continue praying for Greece and this next season. – Jera
