

July 2026 Newsletter

July came and went in a blur. Although it was a slower paced month in comparison to June it presented its own challenges in settling in and finding a rhythm in daily life.

During July I moved into 2 different Airbnbs in completely separate sections of Chişinău. The original plan was to have my long term apartment by the end of the month but this didn't work out. Instead, as one learns quickly in missions, I had to be adaptable and find another short term stay while working on getting the long term stay secured. Thankfully the new Airbnb I moved into the end of the month was significantly closer to the missionary's house! Every small victory matters on the mission field!

Finding a rhythm in daily life was a challenge. I cannot say that I successfully found a bulletproof routine that I stuck to during the month. By the end I was still learning a proper balance between adaptability and routine. That is a success to me considering the changes in living spaces and learning more of my responsibilities AIMing in Moldova!

Responsibilities that I took on included various projects from June and some new ones in July. A major one that I took on was managing the music for our Sunday services. I learned how to navigate programs like Pro Presenter, Multi Tracks, and Planning Center that allow me to create charts and slides in multiple languages (English, Romanian, and Russian) and schedule them out for our worship services!

Other small projects were completed as well, including helping the missionaries install storage shelves in their basement. Throughout the month I was given the opportunity to teach a devotion to the team here, teach a Bible study one of the Sundays, and help with Sunday school. I also assisted in looking for a rental space for our English Club.

A major processes I got started this month was acquiring the necessary documents and miscellaneous items needed for my immigration appointment scheduled in August. Thankfully a majority of it was already completed in the States and I just needed a few more things here in Moldova to complete the checklist. I am very grateful to the missionaries who helped me with the whole process!

That about sums up the month! I continued keeping communication with the contact I'd made the previous month and was able to meet him again in July! My small grasp of Romanian also increased, understanding more and more words daily.

I cannot end without properly thanking all my supporters both near and far. I couldn't do this without all of you! Thank you for the prayers, financial support, and encouragement! It makes a difference!

Prayer Requests:

- A new space for English club/Sunday service
 - Better ability to speak/understand Romanian
 - Health/protection
 - Meet new contacts and maintain connections with established ones

If you would like to give, I have attached my personal Venmo. Thank you and God bless!
